President’s Report

I am pleased to provide this report of the Chapter’s activities during FY 2014 and FY 2015 (July 1, 2013-June 30, 2015).

APA Ohio is a statewide, non-profit association of citizens and professional planners committed to promoting and enhancing planning and the quality of planning for all governmental entities in order to maintain and improve the quality of life for all Ohioans. APA Ohio is a state chapter of the American Planning Association (APA).

APA Ohio operates under the guidance of a volunteer Board of Trustees according to an adopted set of Bylaws. Administrative operations are well managed by the Chapter’s Executive Director, a position filled by Christine Dersi Davis, AICP since January 2011. Key responsibilities of the Executive Director include office and organizational administration, fiscal management (in conjunction with the Chapter Treasurer) website and newsletter management, board meeting management, conference coordination, and section support.

The Board adopted a Strategic Plan in October 2011 to guide our efforts toward achieving the APA Ohio mission—advancing the art, science and profession of good planning, physical, economic and social, to create vibrant communities that offer better choices for where and how people work and live in order to maintain and improve the quality of life for all Ohioans. Our objectives are to:

- Inform - Encourage widespread planning information to and education of public officials, professional citizen planners, the general public and media.
- Advocate - Serve in an advocacy role in legislative and policy issues.
- Promote - Increase public awareness and support of the planning process and planning profession among the public and members of related professions. Tell the planning story.
- Serve - Provide value-added services to both existing and new members.

Beyond these objectives, specific “to do” items developed at our 2014 Summer Board Retreat have become our Work Program over the last year. These goals are to:

- Add a definition of comprehensive planning to the Ohio Revised Code
- Develop a “Great Places in Ohio” program
- Collect anecdotes from planners around the state to “tell the planning story” in Ohio
- Launch the #BecauseWePlan campaign
- Reactivate the Legislative Committee
- Create a citizen planner training program

The information included on the following pages is intended to provide an overview of the services and benefits provided to APA Ohio members during FY 2014 and FY 2015. Our goal is to exceed the expectations of our members. When we fall short, we expect your feedback.

I am proud to serve as APA Ohio President and look forward to future successes for our Chapter.

Sincerely,

Todd Kinskey, AICP
Chapter President
Great things are happening here at APA Ohio! It is my pleasure to work daily with the APA Ohio Board’s twenty (20) members, eleven (11) Board committees, and APA Ohio’s six (6) Sections. As the one and only staff person to APA Ohio, it is my primary directive to support the above entities and, more specifically, to manage the following:

- Office & Organizational Administration
- APA Ohio Website
- The Ohio Planner’s News (Quarterly Newsletter)
- Outreach (Social Media & Email Communication)
- Board & Committee Meetings
- Finance & Investments
- Organization Development
- Sponsor/Advertiser Development & Support
- Membership Development
- Conference Coordination
- Networking & Section Support

Some of the larger initiatives that we’ve been working on at the ground level here at APA Ohio are summarized below. I urge you to contact me at any time should you want more information, or if you would like to get involved.

APA Ohio Website

In the summer of 2014, APA Ohio underwent its 3rd (and final) website remodel since 2011. As our members are spread geographically throughout the state, our website is the primary method of communication and outreach with members. We wanted to get it right!

The website is updated at least once a day with calendar events, news items, workshop information and registration, job postings, and much more. Take some time to peruse all that APA Ohio has to offer online at www.ohioplanning.org.

Membership Acknowledgement & Outreach

Coming out of the 2014 Board Retreat was a charge to acknowledge members for their membership, provide tangible benefits to members, and increase communications on the benefits available to members. Recent items stemming from this charge is providing a member rate at APA Ohio sponsored functions, acknowledgement of membership through an APA Ohio member ribbon attached to name badges, increased communication to membership via a weekly eNEWS newsletter (email), and frequent postings on the social media outlets Facebook and Twitter.

New members, both national and Ohio only, receive a welcome letter indicating their Section affiliation, benefits and links to more information, and a #BecauseWePlan sticker with an explanation of the initiative.

APA Ohio Listserv

The APA Ohio Listserv was deactivated with the change of website platforms in 2011. Its use had declined, and many members found the misuse of the listserv a nuisance and therefore unsubscribed. In early 2015, due to a reignited interest from members to have a listserv back, a new and improved version was launched! To learn more, visit www.ohioplanning.org/listserv.
Planning Webcast Series

In 2015, the Planning Webcast Series entered into its seventh (7th) year! The Series offers over forty-five (45) webcasts per year and has almost fifty (50) sponsoring APA Chapters and Divisions. The Series is run by myself as moderator of sessions, and Northern New England APA Professional Development Officer Benjamin Frost, AICP as session coordinator. Sessions are most Fridays and are worth 1.5 CM credits. When applicable, Law and Ethics credits are applied.

To learn more and receive free access as a benefit to your APA Ohio membership, visit www.ohioplanning.org/planningwebcast.

I look forward to working with the initiatives in progress and those in the future! Again, feel free to contact me with any questions or comments at info@ohioplanning.org.

Best,

Christine Dersi Davis, AICP
Executive Director
APA Ohio Board of Directors

The Board is composed of 16 at-large members elected from the general membership plus the Section Directors or their designated representatives. At least four of the at-large trustees shall not be professional planners, but individuals interested in furthering the goals and objectives of APA Ohio. All board members volunteer their time.

APA Ohio has been well-served by its Board. We would like to thank all of the past board members who have created and maintained a great organization.

2015 Dues Increase
At the November 21, 2014 Board meeting, the APA Ohio Chapter Board of Trustees began exploring an increase to the Chapter’s membership dues. APA Ohio dues have not changed since 2006, when individual annual membership rates increased from $35 to $45. The Board approved this increase on April 24, 2015, for implementation on October 1, 2015. The recommendation is based on the following three primary considerations:

- APA Ohio has increased its member services in recent years, principally through managing online event registrations and administering the highly successful webcast consortium; however, the Chapter’s two primary sources of income (membership rates and conference profits) have remained flat.
- APA Ohio has adopted an imbalanced budget with expenses exceeding income over the previous three fiscal years (FY 2013, 2014, 2015).
- In recent years, APA National has recommended that Chapters standardize their membership dues. Currently, APA encourages Chapters to adopt a percentage-based dues rate (25%, 35%, or 45% of national dues, which are based on member salary); however, APA is considering requiring Chapters to standardize their dues within the next few years.

The APA Ohio Chapter Treasurer has recommended to the Board of Trustees that the Chapter dues increase as follows:

<tr>

<th>Existing Rate</th>

</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>National Individual Membership</td>
<td>$45/year</td>

<td>Student Membership</td>
<td>$15/year</td>
<td>$15/year</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Retired Membership</td>
<td>$15/year</td>
<td>$15/year</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Note: APA National charges their membership dues based on member salary. The Chapter membership would be 25% of the APA dues only, not including any additional fees for AICP or other Division memberships.

Audit Committee

Chair: Rachel Ray, AICP

The Treasurer serves as the Chair of the Audit Committee, convening the committee when necessary. At a minimum, an audit is recommended whenever a new Treasurer is elected and/or when a new Executive Director is contracted. While an audit can be conducted by an accountant, it is not necessary for an organization the size of the APA Ohio Chapter. The purpose of a Chapter audit is to provide documentation of proper money handling for the Chapter’s membership, and provide clarity and security for Board members and Chapter administrators handling money through the documentation of ethical, transparent, and proper financial management procedures.

- The current Chapter Treasurer, Rachel Ray, took office in January 2013.
- An audit was completed by the Audit Committee and adopted by the Board in September 2014, with recommendations implemented through the preparation of a Chapter Financial Administration Guide and (recommended) amendments to the Chapter Bylaws.

A draft Chapter Financial Administration Guide will be presented to the Board for adoption at the December 2015 meeting, with amendments to the Chapter Bylaws to follow in cooperation with the Governance Committee and Nominating/Teller Committee.
APA National Recognition

Ohio was well represented at the APA National Planning Conferences in Atlanta (2014) and Seattle (2015). The APA National Planning Excellence and Achievement Awards are presented annually to honor the best planning efforts and individuals that create communities of lasting value. Four Ohio projects and organizations were honored over the past two years:

Daniel Burnham Award for a Comprehensive Plan (2014)

Plan Cincinnati: A Comprehensive Plan for the Future
Cincinnati, Ohio

Plan Cincinnati is the first plan for the city of Cincinnati in more than 30 years. The three year process began in 2009, one year after the city’s planning department was re-established. Instead of trying to make Cincinnati like other cities, Plan Cincinnati focuses on what makes Cincinnati unique — its urbanity. The plan focuses on revitalizing Cincinnati’s neighborhood centers and corridors while improving citizen’s physical health and quality of life. In a shift from traditional comprehensive plans, Plan Cincinnati is organized around five initiatives — compete, connect, live, sustain, and collaborate. The result is a plan that is more conceptual and is not a strict parcel-by-parcel approach. The plan emphasizes mixed-uses, and defines areas where compact walkable development should be reinforced or established.

Development of the plan was achieved through a “process of discovery,” letting the process itself guide the plan’s direction. Oversight was provided by a mayor-appointed steering committee that included representatives from community organizations, businesses, nonprofits, and institutions. Neighborhood summits, public open houses, and special youth outreach helped ensure that Plan Cincinnati was a plan that represented the citizens of Cincinnati and successfully involved stakeholders of various ages, backgrounds, and geographies.

National Planning Excellence Award for Innovation in Economic Development & Planning (2014)

East Franklinton Creative Community District Plan
Columbus, Ohio

A nine-month planning process that began in 2011 focused on specifically attracting and retaining young ‘creative class’ residents who cannot afford the city’s increasingly gentrified neighborhoods. The East Franklinton Creative Community District Plan, prepared by an interdisciplinary team led by Goody Clancy, calls for creating of an arts and innovation district on 200 acres of distressed, partly industrial land just west of downtown Columbus. Measures to ensure the district’s residents can remain in the area include affordability mandates for new development, freezing of existing property taxes for existing residential parcels, and artist live/work tax credits.
As many as 2,000 new lofts, live/work houses, and single-family houses will be built, along with nearly 50,000 square feet of stores, cafes, and galleries. There is potential for more than 100,000 square feet of adaptive reuse of industrial buildings for artist studios and entrepreneur/small business incubator space. The new district is projected to become home for 3,600 to 4,800 new residents. Already under development are the adaptive reuse of two warehouses and one new mixed-use project.

National Planning Achievement Award for Public Outreach (2014)

Pop Up City: Temporary Interventions for Community Engagement

Cleveland, Ohio

An underutilized parking deck on the site of Cleveland’s former Hippodrome Theater is re-envisioned as a performance space and downtown destination.

Kent State University’s Cleveland Urban Design Collaborative (CUDC) develops temporary interventions that gauge community support for new projects and policies before making significant political or financial commitments. Pop Up City enables citizens to envision future development alternatives based on actual experiences. The process raises awareness of opportunities and helps build consensus around a development vision. In the past three years, temporary interventions have explored alternatives for public space design and highlighted some of Cleveland’s underutilized properties in an entertaining manner. Pop Up City increases public participation and generates better long-term development outcomes. For example, more than 8,000 citizens participated in the Detroit-Superior bridge project that a comprehensive transportation planning process to convert the infrastructure into usable public space.

Daniel Burnham Award for a Comprehensive Plan (2015)

Vibrant NEO 2040

Northeast Ohio Sustainable Communities Consortium

Vibrant NEO 2040 was a three-year regional planning initiative led by the Northeast Ohio Sustainable Communities Consortium (NEOSCC) to determine the vision of the future for four metro areas that include 12 counties in Northeast Ohio. Vibrant NEO is the first regional plan
Vibrant NEO is more than a plan; it is a toolbox for planners focusing on local or regional initiatives. It includes policy recommendations, guidelines, best practices, and benchmarks for plans small and large. The effort specifically tackled issues relevant to planners, including shrinking cities, regional sustainability, digital engagement, and advanced Geographic Information System (GIS) modeling and analysis. More generally, Vibrant NEO answered three important questions: What course is Northeast Ohio on? What future does Northeast Ohio want for itself? How do we make that future a reality?

AICP Outstanding Student Awards and Student Project Awards
APA also honored recent planning school graduates. The AICP Outstanding Student Awards are awarded annually to recognize outstanding attainment in the study of planning by a student who is being graduated from an accredited program. Congratulations to the following award recipients:

Cleveland State University
- Ann Thompson, Master's (2014)
- Michael Mears, Master's (2015)

Ohio State University
- Ronni Nimps, Master's (2014)
- Johanna Maria van den Berg, Bachelor's (2014)

Through an overarching collaborative strategy that brings together members of the American Planning Association and the American Public Health Association (APHA), the Plan4Health project aims to build local capacity to address population health goals and promote the inclusion of health in non-traditional sectors.

Coalitions made up of APA chapters, APHA affiliate groups, and others work to set a new paradigm for healthy planning. By leveraging complementary expertise and influence, this project seeks to expand innovative tactics to addressing tough problems.

Plan4Health is supported by the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC). The American Planning Association’s Planning and Community Health Center is an awardee of the CDC’s National Implementation and Dissemination for Chronic Disease Prevention funding opportunity. Plan4Health is one community within the larger project — sharing lessons learned and expertise with the American Heart Association; the National Women, Infants, and Children; Society for Public Health Education; and Directors of Health Promotion and Education. Please visit www.plan4health.us for more information.

Eighteen local communities were selected during the first round (February 2015 – April 2016) of project funding. Ohio was one of only three states (Indiana and Illinois being the others) to have two communities selected for the program: Columbus and Summit County (Akron). Both communities featured extensive coalitions that have been working on community health issues. As part of the program, each community is charged with creating Community Action Plans identifying milestones, tasks, timeline and staffing responsibilities to implement its strategies. Look for more information about their efforts online and in newsletters.
Membership

The Membership Committee is responsible for developing activities to expand and serve the membership of the Chapter. The committee is also responsible for implementing the Chapter’s goals for increasing diversity in participation amongst the Board and in Chapter activities.

Chair: Kelly Brooker Scocco

Membership Retention and Appreciation

Efforts have been made to continually provide members with tangible benefits, advertise these benefits in the most effective manner, and to recognize and thank our members for being a part of APA Ohio.

Renewal letters are sent out one (1) month in advance of an APA Ohio only member’s renewal date (national members belonging to APA Ohio receive renewal letters via APA National) thanking them for being a part of the organization, and letting them know what’s on the horizon in the coming year.

New members at both the National and Ohio only level receive welcome letters thanking them for joining, letting them know which Section they belong to, and giving them a brief introduction of the organization and the general benefits available to them. Each new member also receives a #BecauseWePlan sticker with a brief explanation of the initiative.

Most recently, APA Ohio purchased membership ribbons to accompany name badges at the 2015 State Conference. It is the intent to continue this practice through Planning and Zoning Workshops across the state to not only acknowledge our members, but to advertise to potential new members.

Membership Trends

Overall membership has remained relatively constant, although the impacts of the recession and less ability to pay for membership dues are reflected in the drop in 2011 and 2012. Total membership has consistently been on the rise since 2013, with 1,185 members to date.

Professional Development

The Education Committee is responsible for identifying appropriate educational programs that may be offered during workshops, conferences, webinars, or other forums. The committee also works with the Sections and the Conference Committee to identify emerging topics or issues that may need to be addressed during educational programming.

Chair (July 2015-Current): Kyle Ezell, AICP

The Chapter supports our members through a variety of professional development activities. APA Ohio provides general educational programs for all members and continuing education that qualifies for certification maintenance credits for AICP members.

Educational Programs, Training & AICP Certification Maintenance Activities

The Webcast Consortium, established in 2008, has continued to grow over the past two years. Reorganized in 2011, the Consortium is now officially managed by APA Ohio Executive Director Christine Dersi Davis, AICP with assistance from the Northern New England Chapter Professional Development Officer Benjamin Frost, AICP. The Consortium currently includes 35 Chapters and 14 Divisions nationwide. Access to the monthly webcasts is free to APA Ohio members and is a great membership benefit. Each year, at least two webcasts qualify for Law and two webcasts qualify for Ethics certification maintenance (CM) credits. There are currently one of each available for Distance Education CM credits.

FY 2014-FY 2015 Annual Report | APA Ohio 15
AICP Exam Participant Survey – Summary of Findings

Beginning in 2013, APA Ohio has conducted a survey of Ohio members who have been approved to take the AICP exam. Once the testing period is opened, APA Ohio sends a survey invitation link to all those who have been approved to take the exam. Our hope is to develop a robust database of information on how much time and effort it takes to both apply for and study for the AICP exam, and advice on the best study materials and test taking tips.

To date, a total of 42 members have participated in the survey; the results are summarized below:

Pass Rate of Respondents
Of the 42 respondents, 40 had taken the test and 35 passed. Of those that passed the exam, five had taken the exam one time previously.

Application Preparation
On average, the respondents spent approximately 11 hours to prepare the application over a two week period, though the median was 9 hours and the range was from a few as 3 hours to as many as 35.

Test Preparation
The average number of hours spent studying was 70, close to the median of 60 hours. However, there was quite a range of responses, with one person studying about 3 hours and another studying over 300 hours. Of the 31 people who responded about the period over which they studied, the average was about 10.5 weeks, though the median was only about 8 weeks.

Resources used (sorted by frequency of response):
- Practice exams
- Notecards and/or online flashcards
- Planetizen course
- AICP Exam Prep 3.0
- Planning Magazine
- Study guides
- AICP Code of Ethics
- APA Planning Prep website
- Took a pretest to identify weaknesses (see http://planningprep.com which offers a number of practice exams and feedback on strengths and weaknesses)
- CD study manual published by the Chapter President’s Council available from APA Ohio

Advice for Future Test Takers
The survey provides respondents an opportunity to share their studying advice on what worked and didn’t work for them. Not surprisingly, test takers have provided a wide range of tips to the open-ended question. A summary of recommendations and their frequency are highlighted in the table below. Common suggestions:
- Start early
- Use common sense/practical knowledge
- Go beyond APA/AICP Review material
- Don't rely on APA’s Planning Prep website

Conferences
APA Ohio (previously named the Ohio Planning Conference, or OPC) was founded in Cleveland on October 20, 1919 as the first Ohio State Conference on City Planning. Among the attendees was OPC co-founder Alfred Bettman, the author of the famous amicus brief in support of the Village of Euclid v. Ambler Realty U.S. Supreme Court case of 1926 that legitimized zoning.
The October 1919 conference included the standard program we enjoy today, even a mobile workshop where “...delegates enjoyed an automobile trip to points of city planning interest in Cleveland.”

Today, the biennial APA Ohio Planning Conference is conducted in odd-numbered years. Since the 1980s, the chapter has coproduced a three-state regional conference with the Kentucky and Indiana chapters of APA. This Ohio-Kentucky-Indiana (OKI) Conference takes place in even-numbered years and rotates between the three states to provide expanded opportunities for educational and networking exchange.

2013 APA Ohio Planning Conference
The 2013 APA Ohio Planning Conference was held September 25-27 at the brand new Cleveland Convention Center. The conference theme was Planning for the New Normal. The opening plenary session was a panel of new and emerging leaders of MPOs and regional planning agencies throughout Ohio, discussing “Disruption & Innovation: The Changing Face of Regional Planning.” The luncheon keynote speaker was Andrew Howard, AICP, Team Better Block. A total of 447 individuals attended the event.

The conference theme of Reimagining Communities was illuminated by keynote speaker Mitchell Silver, FAICP, Commissioner for the New York City Department of Parks & Recreation. All three states were well represented with an almost equal distribution of attendees.

Comprehensive Planning / Large Jurisdiction

Plan Cincinnati: A Comprehensive Plan for the Future
City of Cincinnati

On November 21, 2012 Cincinnati City Council adopted Plan Cincinnati, the City’s first comprehensive plan in over 30 years. The guiding document was created by and for the leaders, citizens, and children of Cincinnati throughout 3 years of community conversations, meetings and events. The awards jury stated that the “comprehensive plan is truly comprehensive and does a remarkably good job of describing and planning for many details throughout the city.”

The Plan Cincinnati process included significant public participation—residents truly had significant input in the vision of the future of their City.

Comprehensive Planning – Small Jurisdiction

X-Plan
City of Xenia

The X-Plan was an unprecedented planning and community outreach effort due to its comprehensiveness, strategic nature and level of community participation. The project has elevated the city’s profile within the region and provided new direction and tools the city staff, leaders and stakeholders. The jury recognized this plan by commenting "the Xenia plan is genuinely the best small community plan I have ever read – from its nearly organic participation process through to implementation.”

Outstanding Community Planning

City of Solon Master Plan
City of Solon

This award recognizes several years of sustained community planning. The master plan for the City of Solon, adopted in October 2010, marked a significant point in Solon’s planning history. 1975 was the last time a comprehensive master plan was adopted. The plan serves as a tool for staff when meeting with developers, business owners, residents and elected officials and when reviewing new projects.
Focused Planning Project

Big Darby Town Center Master Plan
Franklin County Planning, City of Columbus, Brown Township, Prairie Township

The plan utilizes a combination of strategic recommendations for development and conservation to avoid the negative effects of unchecked growth and sprawl. The primary goal of the plan is to respond to increasing development pressure in the Big Darby Creek which is a state and national scenic corridor. The jury noted "this was a truly creative plan that is practical and well written."

Focused Built Project

Livingston Park and Corridor Improvements
MKSK, Nationwide Children’s Hospital, City of Columbus

Livingston Park is a 9 acre park located on the south side of downtown Columbus. The park serves nearby residents. The master plan was created to preserve the character and utility of Livingston Park as a neighborhood amenity. The awards jury stated that "This is a well-built project that incorporates strong planning principles."

The renovation of the historic Livingston Park celebrates the rich history of the park and the Near Southside neighborhood.

Planning Students

Pop Up Rockwell
Kent State University Cleveland Urban Design Collaborative, Spring 2012 Urban Design Graduate Studio

Pop Up Rockwell was a temporary transformation of Rockwell Avenue in downtown Cleveland, designed to test complete and green street improvements in real world conditions. Students were charged with the task of researching, designing, constructing, installing and assessing a set of physical improvements within a 4 block corridor. The jury noted “what makes the Rockwell submission stand out is that it demonstrates innovation and transferability that is worth emulating by seasoned professionals.”
Fellows of the American Institute of Certified Planners (FAICP)
2014 Inductees

Congratulations to Ohio planners Robert N. Brown and Vincent A. Papsidero on their acceptance into the College of Fellows of the American Institute of Certified Planners (FAICP). Fellowship is granted to planners who have been members of AICP and have achieved excellence in professional practice, teaching and mentoring, research, public and community service, and leadership. These two Ohio professionals are part of a national class of only 40. Their induction is well deserved and took place at the 2014 APA Conference in Atlanta.

Robert N. Brown, FAICP
Cleveland, Ohio

For the 38 years of his city planning career, Robert N. Brown has consistently focused on improving the built environment and the quality of life in urban communities. Bob has worked as City Planning Director in Cleveland, Ohio for the past nine years. His notable accomplishments in 28 years with the city include preparation and implementation of the Civic Vision 2000 Citywide Plan, establishment of a system of design review for Cleveland’s neighborhoods, and leadership in “reimagining a more sustainable Cleveland” through pioneering work in land use planning that pairs intensive urban development with urban agriculture and green space expansion.

Vincent A. Papsidero, FAICP
Columbus, Ohio

Throughout his 30-plus-year career, it has been the goal of Vince Papsidero, AICP, to promote a strong planning ethic that builds upon technical expertise and community consensus. He has successfully coalesced diverse opinions toward common visions in urban, suburban and rural settings. A strong proponent of the profession and the ways planning benefits places, Vince has dedicated himself to comprehensive planning and its implementation through regulations, design guidelines and public investments. Through his leadership the practice of planning was transformed in the nation’s 15th largest city, Columbus, Ohio, and a long overdue urban ethic was imbedded into this dynamic community.

Northwest Ohio Section
Director: Patrick Etchie, AICP

The Northwest Ohio Section continues to engage our community and professional planners, leaders, and peer professions in northwest Ohio to offer dialogue and guidance on planning. In the period from 2013 through 2015 our local section has been engaged with the following key events:

- Northwest Ohio Section Organizational/Social Meetings - These meetings are held approximately every couple of months to engage members and peer professions throughout northwest Ohio as we move around meeting locations to various popular eating establishments to conduct our organizational business and to then socialize with fellow planners/peer professions. In 2014 these were replaced with monthly meetings of the 2015 APA Ohio Statewide Planning Committee that has been preparing for the conference being held in Toledo, as we are the host section. The regular organizational/social meetings will begin again post 2015 conference wrap up.

- Annual Planning & Zoning Workshop (2013) - On October 25, 2013 our local section held our Annual Northwest Ohio Planning & Zoning Workshop. The event was an all-day workshop held at the Owens Community College in Perrysburg, Ohio and was well attended by planners, architects, community leaders, local governments, and professional planners from all over the 16-county region of northwest Ohio and some attendance from southeast Michigan.

- 2014 Making Balanced Growth Work in Your Community - In 2014 the Northwest Ohio Section teamed up with the Toledo Metropolitan Area Council of Governments (TMACOG) and the Balanced Growth Program to hold a co-sponsored workshop to provide hands-on experience and interactive workshops for attendees to provide perspectives from both the review agency and developers on what balanced growth means to them. The workshop purpose was to have both sides engage each other and learn new ways to work together for the benefit of communities and to promote proper planning for sustainable growth.

- 2015 APA Ohio Statewide Planning Conference - The Northwest Ohio Section of APA Ohio is the host section of the 2015 Conference that will be held September 23-25, 2015 in Toledo.
