A. Planning Board Basics, Sunshine Laws and FOIA Requests

Short sessions on the functions of planning boards related to land use, zoning, and the decision-making process, along with Ohio's Sunshine Laws and the Freedom of Information Act.

B. Ethics for Planners

Three planners in diverse roles discuss how they applied the AICP Code of Ethics to improve individual workplace performance, government efficiency, and skills transmission to the next generation of planners.

C. Planning for Action

Short sessions focused on inspiring communities to be engaged participants in visioning and reactivating neighborhoods.

D. Storm Water Management and Water Quality: One Project at a Time

Learn how agencies and communities can collaborate on projects big and small to make a significant impact.

SESSION 2 | 10:15 – 11:45 AM

A. Negotiating with Retailers

Equip your township or small town's Comprehensive Plan, Master Plan and Zoning Code with the tools you need to negotiate with retailers.

B. Brand: Your Community's Secret Weapon

An incredible communication tool that can help your community articulate its character, assets and experiences while enhancing economic development and civic pride.

C. Zoning for Form and Density

Removing unnecessary regulations from zoning can result in revitalization and repopulation – making red tape pinker, urbanism leaner, and zoning smarter.

D. Sustainability in Transportation Choice

Learn how community awareness in transportation choice can result in healthier neighborhoods.

AFTERNOON SCHEDULE

LUNCH | 11:45 – 1:00 PM

SESSION 3 | 1:00 – 2:30 PM

A. Plan Review in Townships: Using Discretion Wisely

Land use planners discuss plan review activities permitted by the ORC, how to carry out reviews, and how to coordinate with the zoning permit process.

B. Land Use Law Update

Speakers examine hot topics in planning and zoning law such as eminent domain, medical marijuana, and sign regulations.

C. Hot Topics in Planning: New Ways to Live, Work and Play

Short presentations on topics of current interest: rethinking urban housing, understanding makerspaces, and placemaking for pets.

D. Environmental Hodgepodge: Green, Brown and Wild

Short sessions on a variety of environmental issues including brownfields, trails and the Towpath, and wildlife habits and restoration.

SESSION 4 | 2:45 – 4:00 PM

A. Zoning Close to Home

Speakers tackle a variety of residential zoning issues including home occupations and regulations for accessory structures and uses.

B. Autonomous Vehicles: The Next Disruptive Technology

Autonomous vehicle technology will fundamentally reshape our cities – what every planner needs to know and should already be doing.

C. Planning for a Web-Enriched Community

Experts address how the internet has impacted our built environment and what to plan for next in our web-based world.

D. What Developers Wish Planners Knew

A panel discussion with local developers on how planners can best prepare to deliver successful projects.
