Presents a Workshop on

Zoning Board Basics (Part 2): BZA & Zoning Commission

Back by popular demand! The Department of Planning Services is excited to continue its last edition of the 2015 Planning and Zoning Workshop series which began to provide an overview of the roles and responsibilities of Board of Zoning Appeals (BZA) and Zoning Commission members. Attorneys Mike Lyons and Bill Thorne from the Civil Division of the Medina County Prosecutor's Office will continue presenting basic information for newly appointed officials; special emphasis will be placed on zoning in unincorporated jurisdictions (townships). Come to learn key information about performing the duties of these important branches of local government. Be ready to keep asking questions!

The workshop will be held at the Medina County Department of Planning Services conference room located at 124 West Washington Street, Suite B-5 of the Professional Building in Medina at 6:30 pm Tuesday, December 8, 2015. Please RSVP ASAP to cheinly@medinaco.org.
